UNDER THE LIGHTS

In 1988, the Cubs added a new dimension to already historic Wrigley Field — ballpark lights, allowing the club to play night games ... Chicago hosted the Phillies, August 8 of that season, in the first scheduled night game at Wrigley Field ... that game was rained out prior to five innings, so the first official night game at the Friendly Confines took place the following evening, August 9, against the Mets (a 6-4 Cubs win) ... here's a look at how the club has done under the Wrigley Field lights since 1988:

HOW TO CALCULATE BASEBALL STATISTICS

Earned Run Average = (ERx9)/IP ... Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).

Batting Average = H/AB ... Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage = TB/AB ... Total number of bases (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases) divided by at-bats.

Fielding Average = (PO+A)/(PO+A+E) ... Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage = (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF) ... Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage = Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers = Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.19 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:

(a) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his team, and; (b) he is not the winning pitcher, and; (c) he is credited with at least 1/3 of an inning pitched, and; (d) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (1) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or; (2) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or; (3) he pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team. In 2017, Anthony Rizzo was honored as the league-wide recipient of the award, the first Cubs winner since Sammy Sosa in 1998 ... Rizzo was honored as the Cubs recipient of award in five-straight seasons from 2013-17, prior to Jon Lester receiving the honor in 2018.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Rob Manfred, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Craig Biggio, Clayton Kershaw, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Albert Pujols, Derek Jeter, Andrew McCutchen and Curtis Granderson.

CLARK THE CUB

Clark was born loving the Cubs - it's in his blood! His great-grandbear Joa was once the original live bear mascot for the team back in the early 1900s. When Joa retired to the Lincoln Park Zoo, he delighted the young bears with hundreds of amazing Cubs stories, and Clark was hooked! He dreamed of making his great-grandbear proud and playing for the Cubs - even though he'd never even seen a game.

Then one day, Clark heard the roar of the crowd coming all the way from Wrigleyville. Determined to finally see the Cubs in person, he followed the sound to Wrigley Field, just in time to see the Cubs raise the W flag.

Inspired by Clark's enthusiasm and love of all things Cub, the team invited him to continue the family tradition and become their official mascot! Soon, he had his very own Clubhouse, and you can usually find him there. His favorite thing to do is hang out around the ballpark, keeping spirits high and kids excited!

Clark's Favorites

Favorite Color: Cubbie Blue
Favorite Vacation Spot: Mesa, Arizona
Favorite Movie: Rookie of the Year
Favorite Song: "Go, Cubs, Go"
Favorite Ice Cream Flavor: Chocolate malt cups

30 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

The Cubs have had four starting pitchers make 30 or more starts in a season just six times since 1901, including in 2015 and 2016 when Jake Arrieta, Jon Lester, Kyle Hendricks and Jason Hammel all reached the 30-start plateau. The Cubs have made the playoffs each of the last four seasons in which they have had four pitchers make 30 starts, as they also accomplished the feat in 2003 and 2007. The club also had four starters reach 30 starts in 1975 and 1977.

CONSECUTIVE GAME STREAKS

A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if a player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at-bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance does not extend a streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all a player's plate appearances result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or sacrifice bunt. The streak shall end if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

ERNIE BANKS — MR. CUB

For 19 seasons, Ernie Banks delighted Wrigley Field fans with his long home runs and cheerful disposition. He hit 512 home runs, surpassing the 40-roundtrippers mark five times. He hit 277 of his homers as a shortstop — a National League record. He also holds the N.L. single-season mark for homers by a shortstop (47 in 1958). The 14-time All-Star won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award following both the 1958 and 1959 campaigns.

Banks, whose No. 14 flies from the left field foul pole at Wrigley Field, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1977. He was voted to Major League Baseball's All-Century team in 1999.

Born on January 31, 1931 in Dallas, Texas, Banks played for the Cubs from 1953-71 and served as a coach from 1967-73. He made his major league debut September 17, 1953.

Following Whitey Lockman's ejection on May 8, 1973, coach Ernie Banks took over the reigns as acting manager becoming the first African-American to manage a major league team.

In 2008, Banks was honored by the Cubs with a statue at Wrigley Field, commemorating his illustrious career.

In 2013, Banks was presented with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, an award given to those who have made "an especially meritorious contribution to the security or national interests of the United States, world peace, cultural or other significant public or private endeavors." It is the highest civilian award of the United States.

Banks passed away on January 23, 2015 at the age of 83. The Cubs honored him throughout the 2015 campaign, including wearing a No. 14 patch on their uniforms and displaying a No. 14 logo behind home plate at Wrigley Field.
